I was honorably discharged from the United States military. Veterans who are blind or have a print disability who have been honorably discharged from the United States military receive preference in the lending of books, recordings, playback equipment, musical scores, instructional texts, and specialized materials (Public Law 89-522).

Personal information is confidential except for those portions defined by law as public information.

Indicate the primary disability preventing you from reading printed material.

- Blindness Physical Disability Deaf/Blindness
 Visual Impairment Reading Disability

Eligibility of blind and other print-disabled persons: Residents of the United States, including territories, insular possessions, and the District of Columbia, and American citizens living abroad, provided they meet one of the following criteria:

1. An individual who is blind or has a visual impairment that makes them unable to comfortably read print books.
2. An individual who has a perceptual or reading disability.
3. An individual who has a physical disability that makes it hard to hold or manipulate a book or to focus or move the eyes as needed to read a print book.

Please see www.loc.gov/nls/about/eligibility-for-nls-services for the full eligibility terminology.

BARD (Braille and Audio Reading Download)

Download books instantly to your personal devices using the free BARD Mobile App, so you can enjoy books anytime, anywhere. Patrons need an email address for BARD service.

DTBM (Digital Talking Book Machine)

Players are supplied to patrons who would prefer to receive books on cartridge through the USPS for free. This simple machine is appropriate for patrons who prefer a low-tech option.

Which library services would you like? (check all that apply)

- BARD. I have a personal mobile device (iPhone, Android, iPad, or Kindle Fire), an email address, and Internet access. I want to download digital talking books and/or eBraille materials to read instantly with the free BARD Mobile App.
- Digital Talking Book Machine. I want my library to send a DTBM player and books on cartridge by USPS to my home.
- Headphones. I want my library to send headphones to use with my Digital Talking Book Machine.
- eReader. I am a braille reader and want my library to send a refreshable braille display.
- Hardcopy braille. I am a braille reader and want my library to send hardcopy braille books and magazines to me by USPS to my home.

Playback equipment and library materials are supplied to eligible persons on extended loan. Circulation of at least one item a year will keep the account active. If this equipment is not being used with materials provided by the Library of Congress and its cooperating libraries, it must be returned to the Michigan Braille and Talking Book Library.
